SPRING 2009

All dressed up...
but I don't want to go

Ellowyn Wilde

Notes from the Couch

My therapist, Dr. Bantam, says I suffer from chronic ennui, with just a touch of melancholy – but I guess I'm just too tired to figure it all out. I'm supposed to write down my thoughts and feelings – you know, to help me through my ennui, but really...

I've been shopping at my favorite San Francisco thrift shops – it's the one activity, other than sleeping, I really seem to enjoy. I've gathered a great collection of separates, and I've even found the perfect place to keep them safe from Sybil. It's a beautiful trunk I found in Grandmother's attic. Check out pages 20-21 to see some of my new things.

I guess that's all I have to say for now. I'm supposed to go to a party at Prudence's house tonight, but I don't know...maybe I'll just stay home.

(sigh)...

Love, Ellowyn

En·nui (on-we) – A feeling of weariness and dissatisfaction.

BAROQUE 'N DREAMS*

WELCOME TO THE WORLD OF ELLOWYNE WILDE

She's eternally bored and ready to conquer the doll world...if only she had the energy (sigh...). Designed by renowned fashion doll artist Robert Tonner for Wilde Imagination, Ellowyne stands 16" tall from head to toe. Made of high-quality vinyl and hard plastic, she boasts 12-points of articulation for unlimited posing possibilities. Hand-painted features, rooted saran hair, and designer fabrics are the hallmarks of this temperamental girl.

With a personality as unique as her wardrobe, Ellowyne is definitely the newest doll with a mood.

ALL ABOUT ME

Who I'd Like to Meet: Willy Wonka, who inspires me, and Joan Crawford, who taught me never to smile, which helps me when I visit nursing homes.

MY FAVORITE MUSIC: Oboes and cellos really speak to me, so any music that uses these instruments; Chopin, who makes me weep, plus ANYTHING by Aimee Mann, Karen Carpenter and Judy Garland (seriously, she's amazing!) Oh, and Janet Klein performing obscure, naughty, and lovely songs from the 1910', 20's and 30's with singing and ukulele accompaniment in a girl-next-door Depression Era style.

MY FAVORITE MOVIES: I used to like Tim Burton movies, but lately they seem to make the sky dark. Prudence says movies help you wish for things, but they just make me wish I were somewhere else.

MY FAVORITE T.V. SHOWS: I don't really watch television - it's too difficult to make a decision on a nightly basis. But I do like repeats of Six Feet Under, and Prudence thinks I should watch Dancing with the Stars...you know, for tips and stuff. But really....

MY FAVORITE BOOKS: I like to read, especially at night. Books help me get through the day and night. The writings of Sylvia Plath give me hope, and the Bronte sisters, who inspire me to...well, I'm not sure, but I like them. And Charlie and the Chocolate Factory - I connect with Charlie's family.

Born April 24, 1924
Place of Birth Ipswich, England
(to the attic of Barkley Manor)

The weather on the night of Evangeline's birth was as expected. The wind was howling, the moon was full, and the doctor was unavailable.

And so begins the story of Evangeline Ghastly. Where most call her unfortunate; she thinks of herself as misunderstood. Beginning with a mysterious diary entry, a pet skunk named Mouette, and fashions straight out of a Victorian novel, Evangeline is definitely... a whole other story!

Created by designer Joe Petrollese and sculpted by renowned fashion doll artist Robert Tonner, Evangeline is crafted entirely of the finest pale luminescent resin, and now in the highest-quality vinyl, too.

Completely ball-jointed, she comes complete with hand-painted features and a designer wardrobe befitting any mortician's assistant.

Evangeline comes to you straight from the attic of Barkley Manor in Ipswich, England, across from the local cemetery, prepared to share her quirky tales, unique fashion sense, and mysterious life in one of the oldest towns in England.
