Summer 2012

Ellowyn  Wilde

Notes from the couch

My therapist, Dr. Bantam, says I suffer from chronic ennui, with just a touch of melancholy – but I guess I'm just too tired to figure it all out. I'm supposed to write down my thoughts and feelings – you know, to help me through my condition, but really...

I've been shopping at my favorite San Francisco thrift shops – it's the only activity, other than sleeping, that I really seem to enjoy. And speaking of sleeping, I found an amazing new bed with vintage-inspired pillows and a matching comforter during a recent shopping trip. I was so excited - you can check it out on page 18. Maybe I'll invite Pru, Lizette, and maybe even Amber over for a sleepover...

I guess that's all I have to say for now. I'm supposed to go line dancing with Pru tonight, but I don't even know if I have the energy.

Love, Ellowyn

Born: April 24, 1924
Place of Birth: Ipswich, England
 (in the attic of Barkley Manor)

The weather on the night of Evangeline's birth was as expected. The wind was howling, the moon was full, and the doctor was unavailable. And so begins the story of Evangeline Ghastly. Where most call her unfortunate; she thinks of herself as misunderstood. Beginning with a mysterious diary entry, a pet skunk named Mouette, and fashions straight out of a Victorian novel, Evangeline is definitely... a whole other story!

Created by designer Joe Petrollese and sculpted by renowned fashion doll artist Robert Tonner, Evangeline stands 18-1/2" tall and is crafted of the finest vinyl and hard plastic, with inset eyes, applied lashes, and 15 points of articulation for unlimited posing possibilities. She comes complete with hand-painted features and a designer wardrobe befitting any mortician's assistant.

Evangeline comes to you straight from the attic of Barkley Manor in Ipswich, England, across from the local cemetery, prepared to share her quirky tales, unique fashion sense, and mysterious life in one of the oldest towns in England.
