TYLER
WENTWORTH
COLLECTION

Dear Friends,

First of all, I want you to know how sincerely grateful I am to have so many wonderfully devoted Tonner Doll Enthusiasts. Your creative ideas and heartfelt wishes are the inspiration and imagination behind every new collection; your boundless enthusiasm makes fine doll crafting a truly treasured experience. Because you seek only the very best, you encourage us to do the same—to continually "raise the bar" at Tonner Doll year after year. Thank you!

This will be an extraordinary year for all of us at Tonner Doll as we ring in five wonderful years of Tyler Wentworth. We have many surprises in store for our loyal collectors, who helped bring Tyler into the spotlight—and who, by choosing her to display in their collections and for hours of enchanting play, changed the fine fashion doll industry forever. We are deeply indebted to all of you for the role you've played in Tyler's success, and sincerely hope that you will join us in celebrating.

I am delighted to present our new collection for 2004, which I hope you will find both dazzling to the eye and playful to the imagination. Please join me in welcoming a very exciting new year filled with the glamour of Tyler, Matt, Sydney and friends; the charm of Betsy McCall® and Ann Estelle by Mary Engelbreit®; the magic of April, Becky & Edgar from Lynn Johnston's For Better Or For Worse™; and the charisma of everyone's perennial lady with a touch of vintage, Kitty Collier™. As you browse through these pages, you will find a wondrous variety of fine dolls, exceptional clothing and fabulous accessories—and enough fun and style to make anyone "believe in the power of play!"

TYLER WENTWORTH® Collection 2004

The Wentworth Legacy Continues...

From an early age, Tyler Wentworth® was destined to be a high flyer in the world of high fashion. After confidently assuming leadership of the House of Wentworth and receiving rave reviews for her first collection, Tyler set out to take the fashion world by storm. A modern day designer with a classic look and enduring sense of style, she draws inspiration from the sublime beauty of fabrics and the external influences in her fast-paced life. Tyler Wentworth® continues the legacy of her great-aunt Regina by forging new paths to innovative design that leave everyone talking about where this trend-setter will venture next. As a five-time winner of Fashion Design Weekly's top awards, Tyler expands her visionary influence into the worlds of boutique dressing, cosmetics, perfume, handsome menswear of distinction, delectable shoes and luxurious home collections. She is a sign of the times, always current, yet setting the pace, a step ahead. The rest of the industry tries desperately to keep up with her cunning sense of style, but to no avail; her pace is too quick for them. She is one of the world's most talked-about designers, yet she maintains a very secluded and private world with her best friends, business associates and her new beau, Matt O'Neill™.

Tonner Doll Company is pleased to present the Tyler Wentworth® Collection. Tyler is a 16-inch, vinyl/hard plastic doll with rooted hair and an extensive, stylish wardrobe. She is accompanied by her friends, Sydney, Esmé, Carrie and Angelina. Tyler Wentworth® fine dolls are available in BW Style (Bend Wrist - Signature Style Series Only); AR Style (Articulated Body), and BA Style (Bending Arms). All dolls feature a fully rotational neck joint, rotational shoulder joint, and jointing at the elbows and knees. The AR Style adds a swivel waist, rotational hip joint that allows for leg crossing, and a side-to-side drop-shoulder movement. The BW style adds bending wrists and increased elbow movement to the AR Style.

With a world in restoration and a city in great need, the couturiers of Paris banded together after World War II to create one of the most telling and fully complete representations of fashion splendor. The 1945 showing of the Théâtre de la Mode opened up a world of wearing apparel that was "perfection in miniature," and not lacking a single exquisite detail for which the great haute couture Parisian houses are world famous. The Théâtre de la Mode, permanently housed and preserved by the caring hands of Maryhill Museum of Art in Goldendale, Washington since 1952, lives as one of the most important collections of couture finery and masterworks in the world. Regina Wentworth, traveling to the austere beauty of the Columbia River Gorge in Washington State, often drew upon the inspirations of the extraordinary silhouettes and themes in the collection. Tyler Wentworth®, admirer of the retrospective, and great innovator of new style from vintage art, follows her great-aunt's passions by creating breathtaking beauty inspired by the dramatic masters of the Théâtre de la Mode. We celebrate the splendor of this famous collection with three new styles to add to your collection.

8" Tiny Betsy McCall®

Betsy debuted on the cover of McCall's magazine in May 1951, to the delight of mothers and daughters everywhere, for whom reading the adventures of Betsy and her friends, and cutting out their paper clothes, brought imaginative fun to playtime. In 1957, Betsy jumped from the pages of McCall's magazine into the active hands of her loyal fans as an 8-inch hard plastic doll. Produced by the American Character Doll Company in conjunction with McCall's, this Betsy was an instant hit as a playtime friend! In 2000, the Tonner Doll Company reintroduced 8-inch Betsy McCall as a high quality doll for play and collection based on the original Tiny Betsy. Enjoy the new 2004 collection as you reminisce with Tiny Betsy McCall — and NEW for this year — Betsy's best friend, Tiny Dru!

Since her debut in the 1950's Betsy McCall has managed to transcend time and generation, her particular flair for fashion and magical sense of style keeping pace with children everywhere. Robert Tonner's endearing love for Betsy led to his reintroduction of the whimsical little tyke as a new 14" sculpt in 1996. Now join Robert in 2004 for a brand-new bending-leg Betsy, Dru and Barbara!

8" Tiny Ann Estelle®

Meet our Ann Estelle, the "Queen of Everything," who captures all the charm and whimsy of the paper doll character who appears in Mary Engelbreit's Home Companion Magazine. First introduced as a 10" fine doll in 1999, our Ann Estelle now comes in three sizes: 8", 10" & 18", and even has her own beautiful collection of 'breit' clothing! Great care was taken to reproduce each darling detail of the Mary Engelbreit illustrations in both the dressed dolls and the additional outfits. Ann Estelle and her friends are great fun for collecting and playtime!

For over two decades, millions of readers have been following the everyday happenings of the Patterson Family in Lynn Johnston's ever-popular comic strip, "For Better or For Worse" through a variety of media from traditional newspapers to Lynn Johnston's official website (www.fborfw.com). In 2001, Robert Tonner and Lynn Johnston partnered to bring you April, the animated and endearing youngest Patterson. Our all-new collection for 2004, including Becky, April's best buddy, and the Patterson's lovable dog, Edgar, will set your heart aglow as you share in April's sense of mischief and imagination. Capture your own imagination with April, Becky and Edgar in dressed dolls, outfits and plush by the Tonner Doll Company—for the collector and the child-at-heart-who love, as April puts it, playin'!

10" Tiny Kitty Collier™

In a make-believe time and a tiny place, Tiny Kitty opens up her dress shop, which boasts the most beautiful clothing and accessories. Always the height of elegance, Kitty wears her highly detailed ensembles with great feminine flair. Now collectors and fashion doll enthusiasts can enjoy the signature vintage style of Tiny Kitty Collier™, a 10" hard plastic miniature of the 18" favorite. Tiny Kitty, like her 18" counterpart, has rotational shoulders, bent knees, swivel waist and rotational hip joints for many fun poses! She is also offered as a dressed doll and has additional glamorous outfits that are available separately.
